FRIDAY, FEBRUARY, 2, 1894.

Cassius M. Clay, Jr., is a candidate for Governor and M. C. Alford will probably enter the race also.

St. Louis Star-Sayings. Neither Hawaii, Hornblower nor Helen Blazes seems to disturb President Cleveland's serenity.

The weekly reviews of trade of the Dun and Bradstreet agencies show that improvement in industrial and commercial lines continues, more conspicuously in manufacturing than in commercial branches.

Curious Cullings.

A gentleman must kiss every lady he is introduced to in Paraguay.
It is the custom of the country.

There is a Jewish legend that tells us that God did not put a stop to the building of the tower of Babel until it had reached a height of 10, 000 fathoms, or nearly 12 miles.

Binford, Conn., has a curiosity in the person of a man who can see like an owl. In the day-time his vision is poor, but in the night he has no difficulty in distinguishing objects.

The Dajakese of Borneo never bury a dead member of their tribe until a slave can be produced, who is beheaded at the interment or cremation, to attend the deceased in the next world.

Many of the houses in Holland have a special door which is never opened save on two occasions, when there is a marriage or death in the family. The bride and groom enter by this door; it is then nailed or barred up until a death occurs, when it is opened, and the body is removed by this exit.

The "rooking stone" in Sullivan county, New York, weighs forty tons and is so evenly balanced on a table of rock that it can be easily set in motion by the pressure of a finger, yet so solidly laid that the combined strength of one hundred men without artificial appliances could not displace it.

A QUESTION.

To the Democrats of Lawrence County.

There has been a question asked of me which I am unable to answer —that is left for my party to decide —whether or not I shall be a candidate for the office of County Judge. The time has come when the office should seek the man instead of the man hunting the office.

The party ought to leave off their pets and whims, and please the masses of the people regardless of a few. The necessity for doing this has been proved in a detrimental manner in the past. Consider the matter thoroughly before selecting your candidates for the various offices. Let this be done in harmony and love to the party.

I have heard convention candidates remark, "I did not expect to get there; I only wanted to be in somebody's way." Now this is the wrong spirit. It gets up confusion and wrangling in the party lines and results disastrously for the party.

I am not seeking office and if I were the nominee of my party I should want it by the voice of the Democrats and all the Republicans I could get in November, 1894. I am a Democrat and if my party thinks I am not the right man in the right place, and selects some one else, I say amen to it, and will not think any less of my party or be any the less enthusiastic in the future than in the past for its success.
I remain yours respy.

A. L. SHANNON.

A MILLION FRIENDS.
A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less true one million people have found in Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Croup, and Colds. If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has a powerful curative power in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles FREE at W. T.
Sawyer's Drug and Chemical Co., Louisville, Ky.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Croup, and Colds.

THE GOVERNORSHIP.

The Mountains Will be in the Scramble.

The election of a Governor for Kentucky is nearly two years in the future, but Central Kentucky aspirants for the Democratic nomination are already advertising themselves as candidates.
—In fact they have been acknowledged candidates ever since the convention which nominated Governor Brown. There are enough "standing" candidates in that section to supply the State with Governors for about three decades.
They apparently regard it as one of their foremost duties to the rest of the State to supply Governors.
It is time they were disillusioned on this point.

Notice is served upon those blue grass fellows this early in the fight that the mountains will have a man in the field, and he will be a good one, too—equal to any of their fine stock. We have a number of mountain men who are qualified, but there will be no trouble in the mountains agreeing upon one man and sticking to him.

So you high-headed fellows down there who always overlook and look clear over the mountains except when you need us may as well make up your minds to fight it out on your own ground this time. We'll win if we can, but if we can't we will play the part of spectators, or something else other than "cat's paws."

Receipts for Human Produce.

To remove paint—sit down on it before it is dry.—Texas Sitings.

To Make a "Devil."—First catch a gentleman, then fleece him, stir up continually with sumptuous and wits; strain through the bankruptcy court, then put into the city.

To Make a Modern English Gentleman.
—Take an American,
one part lady, two parts soubrette, dress extravagantly; plunge into millionaire society; let simmer for several seasons; then add a titled husband.

To Make a Modern English Gentleman.
—Wash a large, red stock jobber; brush and trim; bathe all over with money; arrange in a luxurious westend house, surround with puff-paste; then serve up hot.
Will keep for months.

To Make a Literary Celebrity.
—Half educate a vain youth at Oxford; let him grow; dip into erotic French literature; add one idea, chop it small; log-roll the whole. Give a grotesque name, then serve up as a rival to Milton, Sheridan and Shakespeare.

To Make an Art Critic.—Open the top and extract the intelligence of a raw Britton boy; fill up with self-conceit; clean, brush and trim; rub against a handfull of similar obscure and inexperienced lads; add a glass of cheap cherry on press view days, then serve up cold in columns of the Penny Postivist.
A magpie dish.

To Make a Fashionable entertainment.
—Put into a few small rooms some three hundred overdressed men and under-dressed women, a minor royalty, and two or three alien millionaires; sprinkle over a teaspoonful of principle, a quarter of a teaspoonful of good breeding and a tablespoonful of pretension; then add music, super-and champagne. Let the whole stew gradually.—London truth.

The Dollar We Want.

What we want, says an exchange, is a dollar easy to get and hard to let go; a dollar that will pay four dollars' worth of debts and then come back by means of a string attachment; a dollar that snug-gles easy in the socks of John Smith but withers like the manna of old in the safe of a railroad president; a dollar that will buy some flour and meat while it buys much whisky and tobacco; a dollar above drawing interest and yet will double itself while the owner sits in the shade and spits at a crack in the pavement; a dollar that will circulate without appreciation; will buy shoes for baby while it buys fun for a man in places where he can't take his wife; a dollar that will surely repair the waste of stomach appetite and bad judgment; a dollar that comes to the lap of indolence like worms to the craw of a fatherless robin; a dollar that will remove the sentence pronounced upon Adam, reverse the order of nature of men. This, according to our esteemed contemporaries, is the kind of dollar we want.

Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., writes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it." 50 cent bottles for where all other remedies have failed, especially in the case of delicate, feeble women."

Rev. W. W. Bruce, Hustonville, clares that she is well. It is a mystery to me, almost a miracle."

Rev. W. F. Wyatt, Morning View,

My request of Rev. Cox we make this correction: In the list of wedding presents to Mrs. J. K. Long last week the "lion bou dish," by Mrs. Chapman should have been by "Mrs. Chapman, Miss Sweetnam and Mrs. Conley."

You can never tell what a slight cold may lead to; it is best, therefore, to give yourself the benefit of the doubt, and cure it as soon as possible with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A day's delay, sometimes an hour's delay, may result in serious consequences.

To grow old gracefully, one must live temperately, calmly, methodically; be interested in all that is going on in the world; be cheerful, happy, and contented, and above all, keep the blood pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's.

Mr. Schooner, one of the Henry county tobacco men recently here on a prospecting trip, has returned and desires to purchase a farm near Louisa for the purpose of engaging in the tobacco business. Another of the number will be here soon to locate, so Mr. Schooner reports.

John Johnson is still at Arkansas City, Kan., nursing his chin on a piece of Oklahoma land near by, and waiting for the courts to decide whether or not he will be compelled to marry his female competitor in order to get the land. He says that politically he is lone some cat there, as Democrats are somewhat scarce in that locality.

Prospects are good for a large enrollment of pupils in the Louisa Normal which will open in this month. The Louisa school has been a most satisfactory one to the patrons. Prof. Anderson has a tact for getting plenty of hard work out of his pupils and for impressing their minds with what they have in hand, and the results of his conscientious work are very gratifying.

Correction as to Special Term of Court.

We erroneously stated last week that a special term of the Lawrence Circuit Court would be convened February 23d. The correct date is the 12th. Some special equity business is to be disposed of.

New Store Building.

It will occupy the full space between the stores and will extend back a distance of fifty feet. It will be built for a grocery store and will be occupied by Wm. Hemmels, who will remove his stock from the present site as soon as the building can be completed.

Railroad Up Sandy.

"If times brighten up," remarked a railroad man to a reporter for the Mayville Public Ledger the other day, "you may expect to see within two years, or three at the most, the C. and O. running trains through to Charleston, S. C., via the Three C's route. The O. and B. S. road up Big Sandy, owned by the C. and O., will be extended this summer from its present terminus at White House, just above Highland, Ky., to the breaks of the Cumberland mountains, forty miles or more, and this part is now, I understand, under contract. The C. and O. will eventually have a line on both sides of the N. and W.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

A story came from Whitesburg, Letcher County, to the effect that a desperado pitched battle took place near there between revenue officers and a gang of counterfeits in which two of the officers were killed and several mortally wounded on each side.

Boss Skaggs, the Kentucky giant, lives on a farm in Lawrence county, and is spending the winter in grooming up for the circus season this summer. It requires 3 yards of jeans to make him a coat, and 6 yards to make a pair of pants.—Palatoville Times.

The tobacco industry in Greenup and Carter counties has grown wonderfully of late years. In 1883 the East Kentucky Railroad handled only 301,630 pounds. Last year this road handled 1,052,453 pounds.—Ashland News.

Rotten in Magoffin.

State Inspector Gaffner has submitted to Gov. Brown an important report regarding the assessment of non-resident lands, in which he makes serious charges against some of the officials of Magoffin county. To that county he says there were 627 fraudulent lists of non-resident lands reported by the assessor, and one alleged tract of land, which had been sold to the State eleven times, upon investigation was shown to be a figment of the imagination. According to the Inspector's figures there is something very rotten in Magoffin, and the case has been turned over to Attorney General Hendrick.—Courier Journal.

A vote on the liquor license question was recently taken in Pikeville and the anti-license majority was overwhelming.

The good people of Paintsville, Ky., are much worked up over the defeat of local option at Louisa, as they have a similar election called for early in February on the same question, and fear the defeat of their sister-city may have a demoralizing effect at their place as well.—Ashland News.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.

The sick folks here are all either well or convalescent.

The matrimonial mill has been grinding in this vicinity and has ground out a grist for Frank Burton and Miss Jennie Daniels. May peace and happiness attend them through life and may they fulfill all of the commandments that God has given to man is the congratulations of your unworthy scribe.

The protracted meeting that has been carried on for the past three weeks by Rev. Sturgill of the M. E. S. Church on Durbins creek has closed with about 40 conversions and as many accessions.

The Rev. Gosling, the P. E. of the M. S. Church, is holding a quarterly meeting at the Round Bottom church, W. Va.

Rev. William Austin, Thomas Pack and Charles Warren, of Buchanan, are in attendance.

Rev. Hostetters, of the M. P. Church, preached last Sunday at Rockford school house to a large congregation and Mrs. Vina Cornwell was baptized by immersion. Also the Rev. Stephen Compton says he knows where the deputy sheriff lives on Blaine and that he was there about three weeks ago.

Lafayette Compton spent several days in Ashland last week, the guest of Miss Tinnie Price, daughter of Kendall Price; he also visited Huntington and saw one of his old girls walking up street with Stephen Keaser.

The farmers were busy turning the sod and preparing to raise corn until this cold spell came on which has put a quietus on that kind of work again as soon as it broke up.

Richard Hall, of East Fork, who has just been licensed to preach in the M. E. Church, preached his first sermon at the Rockford school house to a good congregation. His discourse was very interesting and was better than many do who have been preaching for years. We wish him success.

Some of the young men of this neighborhood were indicted for disturbing public worship at the last session of the Lawrence county grand jury, and made many threats of violence against the witnesses who made the indictment. Recently some of them attempted to put their threats into execution, and went far enough to commit a breach of the peace by drawing his knife and using boisterous language, for which he was tried and fined. He and another were then fined for swearing. In all the first mentioned were fined in the two cases $20. They were then arraigned on a warrant to bind them to keep the peace, which case they compromised by filing an affidavit that they will keep the peace and not go to church intoxicated for one year. As we have an interest in the welfare of all young men we hope the boys will refrain from any more evil doing.
